

Spring

Cherry Blossoms

Blessed with a mild climate, Niki is one of Hokkaido's leading towns in fruit production and tourism. With winter coming to an end, the fruit trees begin to flower along with the arrival of the cherry blossom season. As these flowers produce fruit, the entire town is filled with the sweet aroma, and harvesting is available all throughout spring until the end of autumn.

Summer

Late-June
~
Early-August

Cherries entrance fee
~ ¥1,000

Autumn

Late-August
~
Mid-October

Strawberries
entrance fee
~ ¥1,000

Early-June
~
Early-July

Mid-July
~
Mid-August

Blueberries
entrance fee ~ ¥600

Late-August
~
Early-October

Plums
entrance fee
~ ¥700

Grapes
entrance fee
~ ¥700

Late-August
~
Mid-October

Mid-September
~
Late-October

Apples
entrance fee
~ ¥700

With 30 different tourist farms in town, strawberry picking starts in early-June, and you can enjoy picking several other fruits such as cherries, blueberries, plums, grapes, prunes, pears, and apples until mid/late-October. ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT fresh fruits with NO TIME LIMIT! We're close to Sapporo so please pay us a visit!